From Saturday Auguſt 24, to Tueſday Auguſt 27, 1751.

Aleppo, June 22.

BY Letters from Baſſora of the 15th of May we are informed, that all Communication between that Place and Bagdat had been ſtopped for ſome Months by the Arabs, the Ophgoons being drove away from Choraſoon; and that all Things were very quiet to the Southern Parts of Perſia. The ſame Advices ſay, that his Britannick Majeſty's Ships, under the Command of Mr. Liſle, were gone to winter at Madagaſcar; and that the French have been ſomewhat ſucceſsful on the Coromandel Coaſt, having obliged the Mogul's Army, which had beſieged Pondicherry, to retreat from before that Place with the Loſs of Naſirchimg, who was General and Prime Miniſter of that Empire. The Dutch Affairs are much perplexed both on that and the Mallabar Coaſt, and even on Java, through the Wars they are engaged in with the Country People; and the Death of their General, Baron Imhoff, ſtill adds to the Confuſion of their Affairs.

Conſtantinople, July 23. We have a moſt diſagreeable Scene before us this Year, the Plague has ſo conſiderably augmented, as to oblige the Inhabitants to be almoſt continually removing from one Village to another, or rather from one Seat of Infection to the other, for even the remoteſt Parts, which were always thought to be the moſt ſecure, have not been exempt. In the midſt of this Calamity, we have had four ſucceſſive Fires, the firſt on the 9th Inſtant, near the Moſque of Sultan Mehemet, which burnt for 21 Hours, with a violent North East Wind, by which nine Diſtricts of the Town have been conſumed, each Diſtrict containing about 700 Houſes, among which were the Quarters of the Janiſſaries, conſiſting of 98 Ranges of Chambers, each uſually containing from 350 to 400 Men. The Janiſſaries then preſent, to the Number of about 20,000, were, in this Extremity, obliged to encamp on the great Place called the Eithmeidan; 200 of them have been ſince miſſing, and it is concluded were deſtroyed in attempting to extinguiſh the Flames. The other three Fires were leſs conſiderable, burning only four or five Hours each; by which however many Seraglios of the great Men of this Government have been reduced to Aſhes.

Liſbon, July 27. The Court is ſtill at Bellem, where they celebrated Yeſterday the Feaſt of St. Ann, whoſe Name her preſent Majeſty and the Queen Dowager bears. 'Tis ſaid a numerous Promotion of Land and Sea Officers is ſoon to be made. The King has conferred on Don Pereyra, the Command of a ſmall Squadron of Ships, which is to be compoſed of two Frigates of thirty Guns each, and two armed Veſſels, and is to ſet ſail on Sunday next if the Wind proves fair, in order to cruize againſt the Corſairs of Barbary, that appear from Time to Time on the Coaſts of this Kingdom. On the 16th Inſtant in the Afternoon a Fire broke out in the Palace belonging to the Infant Don Pedro, which burnt with ſuch Violence, that it ſoon conſumed that ſtately Edifice and beſt Part of its rich Furniture.

Rome, Aug. 14. The Pope has appointed M. Moncada, Archbiſhop of Meſſina, to be Patriarch of Jeruſalem. The Ceremony of the Marriage of the Prince of Francavilla, with the youngeſt Daughter of the Conſtable Colonna, is to be performed ſome Day next Week, to which ſeveral Perſons of the firſt Diſtinction are already invited. 'Tis not only at Nocera and Gualdo, that the Effects of the late Earthquakes were ſo ſeverely felt; but, according to Advices we have received here from Aſſiſi, they have had ſuch violent Shocks in that City, that the greateſt Part of the Houſes have been greatly damaged, and ſeveral of them entirely thrown down.

Copenhagen, Aug. 21. This Court has received Advice, that the ſmall Squadron of Ships, which ſailed from hence about four Months ago, has caſt Anchor at an Iſland near Morocco, ſituate between 30 Degrees and a half of North Latitude, in which 'tis ſaid they are to eſtabliſh a Settlement, in order to facilitate our Commerce with Africa. The King having been informed, that ſome of our Guard Ships which were cruizing at the Entrance of Davis's Straights in Greenland, had ſeized upon two Ships which were trading there to the Prejudice of the Commerce of his Subjects, who for a long Time have had the ſole Poſſeſſion of thoſe Parts, has not only approved of the Conduct of the ſaid Guard Ships, but has moreover ſent Orders for them to ſtop all Foreign Veſſels that ſhall hereafter attempt to do the like.

The ſame Day his Majeſty dined with the two Queens and all the Royal Family at the Prince of Pruſſia's; and To-morrow Morning he propoſes ſetting out for Sileſia.
